SIX THOUSAND MINERS ENTER ENGLISH PITTS

Midland Coal Will Be Shipped For First Time In Seventeen Weeks

Leaders Strive Hard to Persuade Men to Hold Out

London, Aug. 23.—For the first time in seventeen weeks coal is scheduled to be shipped out of the Midland area to-day. Some six thousand men of the twenty thousand coal miners in Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire who signed to return to work, actually entered the pits to-day and began producing coal.

OWNERS SATISFIED

The mine owners expressed satisfaction at the situation and at the number of men who returned to work. They pointed out that the strike was made by the union leaders to prevent a break in the ranks of the strikers. Union pickets, holding many women, persuaded hundreds of men who arrived at the mines not to go to work.

Premier Stanley Baldwin and Mrs. Baldwin left for Aix les Bains yesterday. The prime minister's physician advised that he take a holiday after the strenuous parliamentary session.

LEADERS ACTIVE

This will eliminate Premier Baldwin for the moment from the attempts to settle the coal strike, which there has been little change. The miners' leaders did their utmost to persuade the miners in Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire not to resume work.

A manifesto issued to the men points out how, by accepting the owners' terms, their old wages on a 34-hour day basis, they are losing all the advantages to be gained by waiting for a natural settlement of the strike. It is delivered by the men into the hands of the owners.

EXHORTING MEN

A. J. Cook, secretary of the Miners' Federation, addressed six meetings in Nottinghamshire yesterday, exhorting the men to fight on and to trust their leaders. There has still been no breakaway in the big coal fields of Wales and Yorkshire.

A FULL REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE

Between the miners and owners representatives on Thursday last indicated a very bitter discussion. Herbert J. Smith, the Federation president, warning the owners that they were treating the miners brutally and declaring that he had nothing more to say but would go on fighting.

JAPAN TO COLONIZE OWN POSSESSIONS

Will Not Sponsor Emigration to Canada in Future

Tokyo, Aug. 23.—Henceforth Japan intends to colonize Hokkaido, Formosa and other possessions, but in future does not intend to sponsor emigration to Canada, Australia and other countries, realizing that the previous policy caused much trouble and ill-feeling. A Foreign Office spokesman announced to-day that the spokesman declared that Japan had reversed its entire emigration policy after discovering the "utility and folly of previous efforts to send out its excess population to places where it is not wanted."

MEXICAN BANDITS PAID STREET CAR

Kill Two Passengers and Wound Three Seriously

Mexico City, Aug. 23.—Two passengers were killed and three seriously injured and several others wounded when bandits held up an electric street car running between Puebla and Cholula, yesterday.

FROST DAMAGE

Mexico City, Aug. 23.—The customs authorities at Tampico are said to have seized more than 60,000 rounds of pistol ammunition, which they allege was smuggled into the country on board the steamer Panama from New York.

ENGLISH MINISTER MAY NOW MAKE ONE MORE FORECAST

Chesham, England, Aug. 23.—The Rev. Walter Wynn, whose predictions of momentous events based on symbolism that he reads in the plan of the great pyramid of Gizeh have been widely published, now forecasts Saturday "that something will happen that will finally associate the other European nations from France and Great Britain and render the League of Nations impotent to prevent war."

NEW REGULATIONS FOR B.C. CANNING PLANTS APPROVED

Rules to Protect Women Adopted by Minimum Wage Board to Operate in 60 Days

Arrangements Covering Piece Work Explained, Following Vancouver Conference

Changes in the working regulations of women in B.C. vegetable and fruit canning plants, as recommended by a conference of employers, employees and representatives of the public in Vancouver last week, have been adopted by the Minimum Wage Board, J. D. McNiven, chairman, announced to-day. They will go into effect sixty days after the date of the Vancouver conference.

WAGE SCALE OUTLINED

In a statement issued this morning Mr. McNiven explained points in the conference's findings which have been misinterpreted in some quarters. He pointed out that the conference proposed that inexperienced workers in the first two months of employment should be paid a wage of $11 a week, not $11 a month as was reported last week.

Mr. McNiven also explained that the $14.40 a week, as proposed by the conference and adopted by the Board, an experienced woman must work forty-eight hours a week, less than that time her wages will be computed at the rate of thirty cents an hour. It is only when an employee has worked a full forty-eight hours a week and failed to earn $14.40 by piece-work that the employer must make up this minimum wage to her.

LOOSE GRAVEL CAUSE OF MOTOR FATALITY

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 22.—Thomas Murrell of London, Ont., was killed and four others were injured in an automobile accident near Tilbury Saturday night. The injured are: Percy Smith, 17; Charles Faulkner, 17; N. Fitzgerald, 18, and A. Atkinson, 17, driver of the car. Smith may not live.

According to a statement made to the police by Atkinson, the car she was in loose gravel and turned over after swinging completely around.

SCREEN IDOL DEAD AFTER OPERATION; RUDOLPH VALENTINO

Screen Idol Fails to Rally From Double Operation

Expected to be Back in Hotel Suite in Few Days

New York, Aug. 23.—Rudolph Valentino, original "sheik" of the movies, died to-day.

Death occurred at 12:10 o'clock Eastern Daylight Saving Time at the Holy Clinic Hospital.

The screen star, who was 31 years of age, had been in the hospital eight days and although at first he was reported in a critical condition, improvement had been shown during the latter part of last week and it was thought that he had been safely on the road to his recovery. Last night, however, he suffered a relapse due to pleurisy which set in, in his left chest, due to weakness following a double operation for acute appendicitis and gastric ulcers and accompanying local peritonitis.

The cause of death was given officially as septic endocarditis resulting from the double operation.

Last rites of the Roman Catholic Church were administered at 10 o'clock by Father Joseph M. Cangelosi of the Church of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary.

Valentino did not know he was dying until just a short time before he passed away, according to his manager. He had confidently expected that he would be back in his hotel suite in a few days.

POLA NEGRI, ENGAGED TO VALENTINO, IS PROSTRATED BY NEWS

Los Angeles, Aug. 23.—Pola Negri, who has frequently admitted her engagement to Rudolph Valentino, was prostrated with grief in her apartment in a hotel here to-day when she received the news of his death in New York. She was unable to talk when asked to make a statement.

These figures show a marked increase over the corresponding figures for the first quarter of the fiscal year 1925, when 18,000 Canadians were reported as returning.

GRAND FORKS VOTES BEER-BY-THE-GLASS

Majority in Favor of Damp Territory Forty-five

Grand Forks, B.C., Aug. 23.—Beer-by-the-glass carried in the Grand Forks-Greenwood electoral district Saturday. With two polls to hear from which are expected to cancel each other, the vote Saturday stood in favor of the proposal and $18 against, a majority of 45. Beaver-dam, the mining camp, is counted on by the drive, while Eholt, a railway point will go wet.

FARM TRAINING

"There are many ways in which immigration can be further encouraged," Mr. Beatty said when discussing the subject of the principal being the provision in Great Britain of additional training farms for agriculturalists, these to be sufficient in number to enable a steady supply of many thousands of young Englishmen, who are physically fit, and who have been trained in the sciences of agriculture. When conditions became a little more definitely settled industrially, it is more than likely that the immigration of skilled artisans can likewise be encouraged, but definite policies in these respects will probably have to wait until the present elections are over.

BRITISH ENVOY TO TOUR P.G.E. SETTLEMENT AREA

Lord Clarendon Given Co-operation of B.C. Government in Viewing Prospects

Will Seek Out Land Suitable For British Immigrants; Special Train Provided

Prospects for British settlers in British Columbia were discussed this morning at a conference between Lord Clarendon, British Undersecretary of State for the Dominion, Premier Oliver and Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands. Lord Clarendon, who is chairman of a British Government committee in charge of overseas settlement, is gathering information on settlement possibilities in this country and came here after a tour covering a large part of Canada.

Pursuing these investigations further, Lord Clarendon will make a special trip over the Pacific Great Eastern Railway starting from Vancouver to-day, to the settlement area.

In order to provide the British Government representative with as much information as possible, P.G.E. officials will arrange to take him by motor into districts not actually on the railway.

A special train will be provided for his convenience. After two days' investigation, he will reach Prince George on Thursday to start eastward.

At this morning's meeting the Earl and the Government representatives discussed settlement in general terms. Lord Clarendon did not come here to ask for Government assistance in settlement work or to place any new proposals before the British Columbia authorities.

Ottawa, Aug. 23.—Hon. Andre Fauteux, Solicitor-General in the Meighen Cabinet of 1921, was sworn in again in the same capacity to-day. Dr. Eugene Paquet was sworn in as Minister of Health and Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment.

The privy council oath was administered to both ministers at 4 p.m. in the presence of Mr. Justice Mignault, acting for the Governor-General. The oath was administered by Ernest J. A. Lacombe, clerk of the Privy Council.

Mr. Fauteux, formally made at a cabinet meeting immediately preceding the ceremony. The new ministers attended their first cabinet council later this afternoon.

Mr. Fauteux is a Conservative candidate in Bagot, Que., in the forthcoming elections. He was an unsuccessful candidate in Terrebonne in 1921.

Dr. Paquet contested L'Isle in 1921 and Bonaventure in 1925, both unsuccessfully. Last year the result was a tie.

Hon. Charles Maclellan, 4,344; E. T. Paquet, 3,815.

BEATTY SPEAKS OF CANADA'S PROSPERITY

Construction Programme of 1926 Will Add 165 Miles to Western Lines

C. P. R. President at Winnipeg on Way to Coast

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 23.—"Conditions in Canada are, as I have often said, undeniably improving. This is principally due to agricultural prosperity and the development of the pulp and paper industry. Mining activity is also increasing, but has not shown a relative expansion," Mr. E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, stated in an interview to-day.

BEST SINCE WAR

In consequence of the satisfactory crops of the past three years and the almost assured good crop of this year, the conditions in western Canada are better than at any time since the war. Whether the East can keep pace with the West will depend upon the ability of its industries to secure a larger proportion of the home market, and also increase their export trade.

Asked with regard to conditions in Great Britain and the possibility of increased trade between the Dominion and the Motherland, Mr. Beatty stated that "conditions in Great Britain are entirely abnormal, due to the existing coal strike, the direct and indirect losses of which most necessary have been enormous. Until this has been settled on a basis which will restore the economic stability of that very important industry, it would be, I think, somewhat hazardous to prophesy an improvement in British trade conditions. There exist in Great Britain of industries of nation to stay complete through this trying and expensive period, but until a proper relation is established between wages paid agriculturists and the services rendered for them on the other, the situation must remain embarrassing, and the results to trade uncertain."

FARM TRAINING

"There are many ways in which immigration can be further encouraged," Mr. Beatty said when discussing the subject of the principal being the provision in Great Britain of additional training farms for agriculturalists, these to be sufficient in number to enable a steady supply of many thousands of young Englishmen, who are physically fit, and who have been trained in the sciences of agriculture. When conditions became a little more definitely settled industrially, it is more than likely that the immigration of skilled artisans can likewise be encouraged, but definite policies in these respects will probably have to wait until the present elections are over.

GIRL KILLED IN HEAD-ON SMASH

Winnipeg, Aug. 23.—Dorothy, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Schurman of Elkhorn, Sask., was killed and five others more or less seriously injured in a head-on automobile collision that occurred yesterday on the Winnipeg Beach Highway, two and a half miles north of Clendon.

The injured are Mrs. Schurman, who is in the Winnipeg General Hospital, suffering from a scalp wound and a fractured left leg; Mary Perleman, nine, and her six-year-old brother, M. Perleman, Winnipeg; Mrs. Bessie Rachootin and her thirteen-year-old daughter, Bessie, also of Winnipeg.

WILLOWS WAGERS SHOW INCREASES OVER LAST YEAR

Total of $399,352 is Bet; $349,709 is Returnable to Those Following Horses

Wagers at the Willows race meet last week totalled $399,352 as against $337,363 bet on the same track last year and $360,943 taken in at Colwood at a similar meet a few weeks ago.

If the total bet this year $349,709 was returnable to bettors but a small portion, as usual, was not collected by the money due to them, tearing up their tickets without realizing their value.

Net government taxation on the week's wagers amounted to $19,468.

OPERATORS' SHARE

The Racing Association in charge of the wagers received as its share of the wagers the sum of $27,951, out of which purses were paid. Under Dominion statute twelve per cent is deducted from the gross amount of money invested in each race as the operators' share. This percentage varies slightly on a bet on each race. The operators' total share on the entire meet thus works out at this percentage.

DICTATOR OF GREECE NOW UNDER ARREST; GENERAL PANGALOS

Early Morning Coup Leads to Arrest of President Pangalos and Invitation to Admiral Coundouriotis to Resume Presidency; General Condylis Warmly Acclaimed as Freeing Greece From Tyranny

Athens, Aug. 23.—Pangalos has been overthrown in a bloodless coup d'etat and General Condylis has taken over the reins of government. Moving as swiftly as did Pangalos when last year he ousted Admiral Coundouriotis from the provisional presidency of Greece and set himself up at the head of the government, General Condylis had Pangalos arrested Sunday morning on the island of Epetses, where he was on vacation, and placed on board the torpedo destroyer Pergames, to be brought to Athens.

IN CUSTODY

At the same time all the Ministers were taken into custody. General Condylis, once a corporal in the Greek Army and later Minister of War, severely condemned the Pangalos regime, especially last night in Athens, and declared he would fight against all dictatorships. He promised full restoration of civil and political liberties.

GENERAL CONDYLIS

General Condylis was warmly acclaimed by a large audience which demanded parliamentary elections. A message from Saloniki states that demonstrations were held there last night in celebration of the overthrow of the Pangalos dictatorship.

There is no doubt to suspect that the new revolution was actuated by a desire to restore the monarchy of King George, who for some time has been in England.

MINISTERIAL RESPONSIBILITY

To the Editor:—The B.N.A. Act 1867 recites that Canada is to have "a constitution similar in principle to that of the United Kingdom." The following quotations are from Sir Erskine May's famous "Constitutional History of England," which was published in 1861, six years before the B.N.A. Act was passed. "So completely had the theory of ministerial responsibility been now (1834) established, that, though Sir Robert Peel was out of the realm when the late ministers were dismissed, though he could have had no cognizance of the causes which induced the King to dismiss them, though the Duke of Wellington had been invested with the sole government of the country without his knowledge, he yet boldly avowed that by accepting office after these events, he became constitutionally responsible for them all as if he had advised them. He did not attempt, like the ministers of 1807, to absolve himself from censure for the acts of the Crown, and at the same time to denounce the criticism of Parliament as an arraignment of the personal conduct of the King, but manfully accepted the full responsibility which had devolved upon him."

Will the historian of the future compare Mr. Meighen to Sir Robert Peel or to the ministers of 1807? According to The Colonist Mr. Meighen "the Governor-General had acted before calling himself in. He did not therefore deserve the blame and on August 21 he told a French audience that the Governor-General 'took his first step without seeing me—he took that step on his own responsibility—he was absolutely right throughout.' Is that the language of one who 'manfully accepts the full responsibility which has devolved upon him'?"

In 1807 "it was also well observed by Mr. Whitbread that the avowal of ministers that the King had acted without advice amounted to a declaration on their part that they disowned the responsibility of the act complained of, and left His Majesty to bear the blame of it himself, without that protection which the constitution had provided."

HOW THEY VOTED

To the Editor:—I always hesitate to reply to letters to which the Editor refuses to give his name for publication, but on this very important question will you kindly allow me to furnish the correct information for readers generally. The question at issue is not so much, why the Conservatives voted so solid against the bill as laid before them; it was not that they disagreed with the bill, but that they were in a pension, but the question at issue was the bill was unworkable as it stood. But the important point at issue, in the words of Mr. Neil, was "What was the majority of twenty-four which voted for the bill, three against it and seventeen were absent, of that seventeen it is noteworthy that seven were in the House and did not vote. Have they forgotten the Liberal platform and convention called in Winnipeg in 1919, where a policy was adopted to guide the party in years to come, not put into force in a day or a week or a year, but as circumstances warranted? The government of the day thought the time was ripe and introduced the measure. Was it not the duty of the Liberals as henchmen or supporters of that policy to adhere to the stand by their principles and by their platform the vote would have been forty-two Conservatives against forty Liberals for."

I was analyzing the vote, and without adding any adjectives I will say, had the vote gone as I suggest it should have done, it would have read like this: Forty-two Conservatives against forty Liberals and one Conservative in its favor, or forty-one against forty-two. It would have lost by a majority of one, and a loss by a majority of one would have been satisfactory in this respect, that it would surely predicate the passing of the bill at a session in the immediate future. This is not the opinion of a Conservative but a man who consistently supported the Liberals. The Senate consists of ninety-four; seventy-seven that day actually registered. Twenty-one voted for the bill, included in these was one Conservative. Forty-five voted against and included in these there was one Liberal.

The ninety-four is made up as follows: Fifty-two Conservatives, forty-two Liberals, the majority in the Senate of Conservatives being ten. I would suggest that "Curious" and others interested note carefully these figures, and I don't know that they will agree but my conclusions are that it was the Liberal Senators that failed in their duty. They knew, surely, as referred to by Mr. Neil, the importance of the bill, and that this bill should be protected but although those who could have voted in the House did not, there were others that refrained by there abstention from voting. Is it not fair to assume that out of the forty-two Senators, Liberals, only twenty-one were in favor, and using the words of the Right Honourable Arthur Meighen: Forty-five Conservatives, twenty-one Liberals voted (because absence on this important question would look like agreement) against the bill making sixty-five, and to be fair, counting the eight absent Conservatives with the twenty Liberals making twenty-eight. It was not the overwhelming majority of Conservatives but Conservatives and Liberals who felt the bill was a fake and sham or was it that it was a pre-arranged scheme to make the vote forty-five to twenty-one appear like an overwhelming majority? The tendency, who were against the bill, forty-five; but only twenty Liberals had the wish to record the vote. What was the intention of the other Liberals, "question."

REVOLUTION CAUSES UPHEAVAL IN GREECE

interest, but is not credited with having any idea of a new monarchial movement which would be likely to lead to his return to Greece.

FREE ELECTIONS

Announcement has been made by General Condylis that Admiral Kountouriotis is the "lawful president" of Greece and that he has been invited to resume the presidency. It is the intention of General Condylis to organize a government of "national confidence." To this end, he promises free elections within eight months.

All the political leaders and officers who were arrested under the Pangalos regime charged with conspiring against the Government, have been released.

General Pangalos and all those responsible for the iron-handed methods of his regime will be tried by a commission which is to be appointed to fix their responsibility.

WITHOUT FIGHTING

The only attempt at resistance of the coup reported, occurred at the military post on Mount Lycabettus, near Athens. The opposition was short-lived and the little garrison surrendered without fighting.

It had been anticipated that President Pangalos would fall, as there has been much dissatisfaction expressed over his iron-handed dictatorship. When Pangalos carried out his coup last year, he showed some of the "limitless nerve" he is said to have. With a few adherents he seized the main telegraph office in Athens and compelled the operators to send messages throughout the country that he had overthrown the Government. The messages demanded the support of the military and naval units and those, not realizing the true state of affairs, replied with messages of adherence. These messages were shown by Pangalos to members of the Government, who abdicated in his favor.

ABOARD DESTROYER

"The Greek Musolini" himself was arrested yesterday morning, and placed aboard the destroyer Pergamos for conveyance to Athens. The destroyer left Spetzas to-night. After the destroyer departed it became evident that Pangalos was making an endeavor to escape, but the Pergamos had insufficient fuel to reach a foreign port and cruised about in the narrow strait between the island of Hydra and the mainland.

The warships Kiklis and Leon were ordered to pursue her. They fired blank shots, while hydroplanes bombed her. The Pergamos steamed at full speed to the south in an attempt to join their squadron steaming toward the Aegean, hoping to receive support. But the Kiklis and Leon had been instructed to sink her if she persisted in refusing to surrender.

IN EARLY MORNING HOURS

The coup was engineered without disturbances in the early hours this morning, both army and navy rallying to the Condylis standard. Gen. Condylis to-day was reported master of the situation, and complete calm was reported in all sections of the Athens exhibiting general satisfaction on the return of events.

Messages from Spetzas stated that Pangalos had been arrested on telegraphic orders from General Condylis and was being taken on the Pergamos to the capital over which he had ruled with an iron hand since he had not escaped, he, together with the members of the Eutaxia Government, all of whom have been placed under arrest, will have to answer charges for alleged tyrannical misrule.

COUNDOURIOTIS INVITED

Admiral Kountouriotis, former president of Greece, who is spending a vacation on the island of Hydra, has accepted the invitation of General Condylis to take over the presidency again.

In an announcement Condylis promises "free elections" within eight months at the latest in order to confer power upon the chosen representatives of the republic. Thus it is his intention to organize a government of "national confidence."

All the political leaders and officers arrested under the Pangalos regime have already been set free, and newspapers suspended by Pangalos are reappearing.

FROM "TYRANNY"

The communique further declares that up to the present only the secretary of war, General Tseroulis, and sub-secretary of war, Macris, have been arrested. Proclamations have been posted in the city inviting the population to celebrate its deliverance from "tyranny."

The machinery for the dramatic coup began to turn shortly after midnight, and so quickly did it operate that by 8 o'clock this morning the streets of Athens had their usual appearance and there was little to indicate that a big revolution had been successfully carried out during the hours of darkness.

All the military establishments, the telegraph office and the government departments, including the palace of the council of the presidency, were taken over with a rapidity that gave evidence of how well Gen. Condylis had laid his plans.

SENT TO ATHENS

The general himself then went to the War Ministry and ordered the arrest of the War Minister, General Tseroulis. An order was immediately dispatched to the Spetzas garrison to arrest Pangalos and shortly word was flashed back that the dictator was prisoner and was being sent to Athens.

Within a short time messages began to pour in from the army and navy at distant points pledging enthusiastic support to the new regime.

BEATTY SPEAKS OF CANADA'S PROSPERITY

NO PROPOSALS

Commenting on the situation with regard to the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia Railway situation, the electrification of the mountain lines in the West, Mr. Beatty said: "There has been no change in the status of the E.D. & B.C. and Central Canadian railways since the Alberta Government served notice upon the Canadian Pacific that the existing lease would terminate on November 10. No subsequent proposals have been made by the Government to the company or by the company to the Government."

"The electrification of the mountain lines, in respect of which extensive investigations have been made during the past few years, will depend somewhat upon the expedi-

ments now being made in the use of Diesel electric engines in railway motive power. The problem of the company is a relatively simple one; in that some method of increasing the capacity of our lines in the mountainous and sparsely settled areas, and that which involves the least initial outlay and the largest saving in operating expense is the one which will be eventually selected. The work will not of course in any event be prosecuted until traffic conditions warrant it.

CONSTRUCTION

The 1926 construction programme in the West is proceeding satisfactorily, and when completed will add 165 miles to the company's lines, principally in Alberta and Saskatchewan. The programme for subsequent years has of course not yet been determined.

Mr. Beatty is in the West on his annual tour of inspection of the company's lines. He is accompanied by the following directors: Sir Herbert Holt, F. W. Molson, Ross MacEwan, K.C., and W. N. Tilley, K.C., and F. E. Meredith, K.C.

REMAND GRANTED IN REGISTRATION CASE

Vancouver, Aug. 23.—"This is obviously a political case, but the court should not be used for political purposes," declared Magistrate Ferguson in granting a remand in the case of the Amos G. Ferguson case. Ferguson is charged with perjury in connection with the alleged objection to his name on the list of voters' list in Ward One, Vancouver Centre.

There was not a single representative of the prosecution in the court when the case was called. There was neither counsel, informant nor witness.

Assistant City Prosecutor Oscar Orr declared that he had not been instructed in the matter, but that he had been in telephone communication with prosecution counsel, who declared that there had apparently been a misunderstanding. "He declared that he understood the case was called for Wednesday," explained Mr. Orr.

Mr. A. Henderson, K.C., counsel for the defence, asked if it was really intended to prosecute the case. Mr. Orr replied that he had no knowledge of the matter, having just returned from his holidays.

"This charge should not be left hanging over a man's head," declared the magistrate, "he is guilty he should be behind the bars."

A remand was granted until Wednesday.

PREPARE FOR OPENING OF CUSTOMS INQUIRY

Royal Commission Will Sit Again in Halifax Wednesday

Halifax, Aug. 23 (Canadian Press)—Preparations for the opening of the investigation by Royal Commission into the administration of the Department of Customs and Excise here Wednesday morning are well under way.

W. F. O'Connor, K.C., joint counsel with R. L. Calder, K.C., for the commission, T. A. O'Hearn, registrar for the commission, and R. F. Sparks, president of the Commercial Protective Association, acting in an advisory capacity, arrived in Halifax last night.

Mr. Calder is expected to-night, while the commissioner, Sir Francis Leveson, will arrive on Tuesday evening.

A trunk full of files from the Department of Customs, covering cases to be investigated during the Maritime season, is expected to arrive by the time the probe opens.

Just what the investigation in Halifax will cover is not known, but it is safe to say that liquor smuggling in its various ramifications will command the attention of the commissioner.

This Freedom!

Sermon Preached at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Yesterday by Rev. W. Leslie Clay, D.D.

"But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life."—St. Paul's Letter to the Romans, Chapt. vi 22.

Writing to the people of Rome St. Paul chooses to express his thought in terms suggested by the forms and practices of Roman law—that superb system upon which have been founded the legal systems of many modern nations. He declares that by nature men are the bond servants of a master named Sin, whose service leads inevitably to death; but by His own death Christ has purchased our deliverance from that master and henceforth men are free to serve God in a way that leads to everlasting life. God now becomes man's master instead of sin, and the result of such service is life instead of death. The language which St. Paul uses is that of the ceremony of emancipation of a slave under the Roman code. Emancipation was the best and most honorable way of releasing a slave. The old master has no longer any right to direct his activities. The metaphor of this legal emancipation explains the peculiar statement of verses 18 and 20, "Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness." For when ye were servants of sin ye were free from righteousness.

Does this utterance of Paul describe anything that is real in our experience? Are we conscious of a bondage that galls and destroys? Have we any actual experience of being delivered from that bondage through our relation with Christ? Is the Apostle dealing with facts of prime importance or merely indulging in senseless day dreams? To such questions let us turn.

1. Is it true that by nature we are the servants or slaves of sin? We may not like the implication, and brush the whole matter aside with impatience. But facts are not slain by human dislike. Is there one among us who is not conscious of bondage to something in his nature from which he desires to be free? Do not most men sense a hardness of circumstances, or some unpleasantness of conditions, but something in his own inner life. The struggle within the darkest conflicts rage within the soul of every man. St. Paul spoke the inmost experience of multitudes when for himself he said, "I would that I myself might be anathema to Christ, that I might be with Him." (vii 19). The most appalling results flow from the conflicting forces that struggle within the breast and seize in quick succession the control of life. To-day you may know your neighbor a kind, thoughtful, high-minded citizen, in all reverence and respect, yet in the workshop of God, To-night cruel, heartless, mean-spirited and despicable he may be found groveling amid the filth of the gutter, and with demonic joy dragging still lower his miserable companions in vice. Which is the true man? It is amazing that the Apostle should be so explicit of the fact that there is a law or power in one's members warring against the law of one's mind bringing one into captivity to the power of sin. The Apostle of the first century is at one with the novelist of our own day, and anticipates by many centuries the strange story of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." Yes St. Paul is right in depicting those forces that rise up from the depths of our own inner being, inflicting upon us a bondage of sin, and sweep us on to destruction. We are by nature the slaves of sin.

2. Seeing then that the Apostle is right about our natural bondage, is it right when he speaks about a deliverance for those who wish to escape from that bondage, and to enter upon the freedom of the sons of God? St. Paul's own experience left him at least in no doubt that the deliverance was just as real as the former bondage. The intense hatred that flamed forth in threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord was transformed into a tenderness and love towards all the brethren and a passionate devotion towards the Lord, for whom he willingly suffered and gave his life. From a bondage to all hatred and bigotry, Paul passed into the glorious liberty of a son of God, and not for himself alone but for all candid students of history, that experience of his establishes the reality of deliverance from sin's fatal bondage. And his isolated experience, in every generation like marvelous results have happened. The licentious Augustine becomes the great Bishop of Hippo. The blaspheming thinker of Bedford writes the Pilgrim's Progress. The degraded thief becomes the mighty evangelist of New York. Such things as happened to Saul of Tarsus happen to-day. Men and women are being set free from bondage to evil habits and vicious passions; they do make a fresh start in life; they do have their being revolutionized by the incoming of a new power that lifts them above their old lives; and in place of haunting fears inspires them with confidence. In some cases the change is instantaneous. In others it is more gradual and is effected only through struggle. But even where the struggle is prolonged there is a consciousness of divine resources, a certainty of ultimate victory, a present sense of freedom and mastery. Mr. Harold Begbie has gathered quite a number of such life experiences and has given them to the world in his books, "Broken Earthenware" and "Twice Born Men." Such experiences are too numerous to be ignored and too patent to be contradicted. The deliverance from bondage to evil has been wrought in countless lives. It is still being wrought through simple faith in the saviourhood of Jesus Christ.

3. Amid the shame and superficialities that almost stifle the life of our generation there is noticeable a great hunger for reality. I think I perceive a growing hunger for reality, that hunger that reaches into the soul. Many are still content with the goods of present and sensuous gratification. I admit that an increasing number are not satisfied with these and turning from them seek life in something higher and spiritual reaction. Disappointed and disillusioned through the ineffectiveness of the best of this world men will turn to Christ who alone is able to give what they consciously need. Herein is life in its fullest and richest possibilities to know Christ as one's personal saviour. Whether men are aware of it or not, Christ is the object of the soul's quest.

4. A practical question still remains. How are we to know Christ? To know Christ as a great Teacher sent from God 1,900 years ago is not enough. We want a present companion of our souls, tender with us in our failures, helpful in our weaknesses, a friend at all times, a living presence here and now. Now all that Jesus Christ actually is a living, tender, helpful, present friend and companion whose power to deliver we may now discover and make our own. Saul of Tarsus found Him all that 2,000 years ago, and He is the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

By committing ourselves in humility of spirit and simplicity of faith to Him as our Saviour and our Lord we may look for and actually experience a marvelous deliverance from bondage and enter into this freedom of the sons of God wherein we may serve God unto everlasting life.

"The Son of Man"

Sermon by H. C. Bickell Sunday Evening Before the International Bible Students' Association at the Playhouse Theatre.

Among the many titles applied to our Lord Jesus Christ, and one of those most frequently used by Himself, is "The Son of Man." Some have been inclined to consider this a concession on our Lord's part that He was a son of Joseph; but this is wholly wrong; He never acknowledged Joseph as His father. On the contrary, it will be noticed that this title which He applies to Himself is used, not merely respecting His earthly life, but also as respects His present condition and glory. And from this fact some have swung to the other extreme, and claim that it indicates that our Lord is now a man in heaven—that He still retains human the Scriptures emphasize, "undefiled, without sinners" (Heb. vii:26). "The seed of the woman" is referred to as being the antagonist of the seed of the serpent, yet the Scripture intimates that Eve would have any seed apart from her husband, Adam. And in the same sense that it is proper to think of and Lord as the seed of David, it is equally proper to think of him as the seed of Adam, through Eve. And this we believe, is the thought lying back of the title, "The Son of Man."

Adam, as the head of the race, and his appointed life-giver, failed to give his posterity lasting life, because of his disobedience before the tree of life. The divine promise looked forward to the time when Messiah, identified with Adam's race, should and the right hand place of favor with the Majesty on high.

Notice, a few of the uses of this title by our Lord, as set forth in the Scriptures. "The Son of Man" (Matthew xlii 41) in the harvest of this Gospel age. "So shall it be in the presence of the Son of Man" (Matthew xlii 47) in the harvest of this Gospel age. "When the Son of Man shall come in His glory, and all the angels with Him" (Matthew xlii 31). "Of Him shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when He cometh in the glory of the Father" (Mark viii 38). "What if ye shall see the Son of Man ascending where He was before" (John vi 62). "He that came down from Heaven, even the Son of Man" (John iii 13).

These Scriptures identify "The Son of Man" with the Lord of Glory, and with the man-Christ Jesus, who gave Himself a ransom for all, and came down from heaven and was made flesh (John i:14). And evidently the Jews did not have the thought of the title "The Son of Man" signified the son of Joseph, or in the ordinary sense, the son of a man, to receive life from human father; this is shown by the fact that they inquired, saying, "We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth forever; and how sayest thou, The Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?" (John xii:34). The Jews evidently identified the expression, "The Son of Man," with the Messiah, and in no doubt basing their hopes in large measure upon the statement of Daniel (viii:13), "I saw in the night visions and behold one like unto the Son of Man came down from heaven, and came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought him near before him, and there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom shall not be destroyed." Our Lord identified Himself with this description in His Revelation (xvi:14), where He referred to Himself as "one like unto the Son of Man," and having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle—the Reaper of the harvest. "The Son of Man" is, therefore, a title of great significance. Nevertheless, even though assured that this title in no sense refers to Joseph's son, and though the evidence is conclusive that it refers to the Son of God, for the purpose, was sacrificed forever, and that now He is a quickening spirit being of the highest order (Heb. i:3; I Peter iii:18). The question still arises, Why did our Lord choose such a name, such a title? Have we no reason to suspect that there must be some particular reason for it, else this particular title would not be used, since each of our Lord's titles has a peculiar significance, when understood?

There is a most important reason for the use of this title. It is a title of high honor, because a perpetual reminder of His great nature—His faithful, humble obedience to all the Heavenly Father's arrangements, even unto death, even the Father of the cross by which He secured the title to all His present and prospective honor and glory, dignity and power, and the divine nature. By this title, "The Son of Man," both angels and men are referred directly to the great exhibition of humility on the part of the Only-Begotten of the Father, and the underlying principle of the divine government,—that exalted himself shall be abased, and he that humbled himself shall be exalted. Thus every time this name is used it speaks a volume of valuable instruction to all who shall be taught of God, and who are desirous of honoring Him, and of doing those things which are well pleasing in His sight.

In the same sense that our Lord was made "of the seed of David," and "of the seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob," he was also of the seed of Adam, through mother Eve,—yet, as

This earthly right, kingship, dominion, fell into disorder, was lost, through the fall, but was part and parcel of that which was redeemed by the great sin-offering. As it is written of our Lord, prophetically, "Unto thee shall it come, O Tower of the flock, even the first dominion" (Micah iv:8). Thus we see that the hope of the world, under the divine arrangement, was to be a great son of Adam, a great son of Abraham, a great son of David, a great son of Mary. Now does this imply that the life of this son would come either through Adam or Abraham or David or Mary. Under the divine arrangement, and as put into practice, the life of Israel, a son-in-law, was counted as a member of the family, able to redeem and to take up a forfeited possession. In the case of our Lord, we have clearly seen that his life came not through earthly parentage, but merely his physical organization—that the life proceeded forth from the cloud of God, and that originally he was known as the Logos (Greek equivalent for "Word") (John i:14).

And the more we investigate this subject the more evident all the foregoing appears, for the student of the Greek may readily inform himself of the fact that in all instances in which our Lord makes use of this term, "The Son of Man," He used it in an emphatic form, which is not the case in the English translation, and which, to be appreciated in English, would need to be expressed with emphasis upon the two words, "The Son of the Man." And our Lord's right to this title is indisputable. As Adam alone was perfect, and all others of his race defective, and since this one Son, who attached himself to Adam's race, to be the Redeemer of all his lost possessions, so when he was in the act of redeeming the race, and since He has redeemed it from the curse or sentence of death, the title, to be "The Son of the Man" came legally and indisputably into His possession.

And not only was that title properly his during the period of His giving the great "Ransom for all," but it is properly His during this Gospel age, while the selection of His co-workers in the grand restitution programme is in progress (Acts ii:21). And much more will this title properly belong to our Lord during the term of His Millennial Kingdom, when He will as the (now highly exalted and honored Son of the Man) prosecute the work of restitution, "the redemption (deliverance) of the purchased possession." (Eph. i:14; Ruth i:13-16).

Victoria Cricketers Tie Series For B.C. Title By Great Win

Vancouver Eleven Defeated in Well-played Match; Gravett Top Scorer With 78

Vancouver Batsmen Start Well; After Reaching Century Wickets Fell Cheaply

Victoria's cricket eleven, skippered by E. D. Freeman, won the second inter-city match for the Flumerfelt Cup at Mt. Tolmie Saturday, defeating Vancouver by 263, declared, to 137 all out.

Freeman celebrated his first turn as captain of the Victoria side by winning the toss and, after inspecting the wicket, put his team in. With nine wickets down for the splendid total of 263 Freeman declared and Vancouver followed on. The Mainlanders tried desperately to put on runs but in face of the deadly bowling of Freeman and Grant they could not get going. Even when the chance of overtaking the Victoria total passed the visitors were unable to stay in until the time limit. They were all out at 5.50 o'clock, forty minutes before stumps were to be drawn.

WINNERS CHEERED
Immediately after the last Vancouver man was out the large crowd showed congratulations to Freeman and his team. Freeman showed splendid judgment throughout the match.

The inter-city series now stands with each eleven holding a win. Vancouver won their home match on July 1. The third and deciding match will be played on Labor Day. It was a delightful match to watch with plenty of good cricket. Freeman, the skipper, won the toss and at 10.45 opened with Reg. Reid and Bill Vandy of the Burrards were bowling. In half an hour 30 was "telegraphed." Both Wenman and Sparks were changing bowlers, and Vandy and Vandy were taking the place of Ivamy and Reid. Vancouver fielded splendidly. Shortly after an hour's play Sparks was caught by Vandy off Vickers. Leggett, the famous Cowichan player and a forceful bat, came in and on the very first ball hit it to the boundary, and on two succeeding balls to the off soon got into double figures. He eventually accumulated 50 runs, and was out, having sent up a beautifully pitched ball.

WENMAN GOT 46
Shortly after noon Wenman was bowled by Ivamy, when he reached four short of fifty. Vickers now came on at the Pavilion end, and with "Rich" Gillespie, the distinguished Victoria club player at the bat, some very interesting cricket was witnessed. Vickers and gave a catch to Collins, who held it in long field. The telegraph now read 130 for four wickets with half an hour to play before lunch.

G. C. Grant came in and began to play some forcing shots. At 14 Vickers found his wickets with a splendid ball. Gravett, who succeeded Gillespie, proved steady and consistent cricket having compiled, up to the call for lunch, 36 runs. The score was 175 for five wickets. The Cowichan player, Vandy, was bowled by H. H. Allen of the Innings, who succeeded Grant, gave much delight to the goodly number of spectators present during the morning session.

Quinton, with 10; Freeman, 6; Watson, 4 and Pendray, 11—both the latter not out—Skipper Freeman declared the innings closed with the total at 263.

VANCOUVER OPENS
Vancouver opened with "Laurie" Wyles and Rev. Price, in and Grant and Pendray bowling. Sparks dropped two catches at the first two over, however, being a very difficult one.

Vancouver was well beaten, but the game proved thoroughly enjoyable, and its many features gave satisfaction to the spectators, who throughout the day watched the play with keen interest. Among the several things Freeman wrote provincial history of local cricket are, first, he won the toss and elected to bat; secondly, he has seldom trundled a better ball, and, thirdly, he was of such gallant material that he selected for himself the only "duck" of his side. He bowled in tricky, but effective manner, first slow, then medium, gathering to his analysis four of the best of the mainlanders thoroughly beating "Bill Ivamy" and Collins, the latter having the pleasure of coming to Victoria to receive the lowest score of the series. Both Percy Broadfoot, the great defender of "The Aurora," and Vickers, were out to two of the latest catches seen for a long time, right in Pendray's hands, but this graceful player held them.

Sparks, very much in the limelight during the recent inter-provincial cricket tournament in Alberta, could only amass 37 runs for his side. Much is always expected of this famous "Inco."

Reggie Wenman added to his laurels, and was one of his top scorers for his side, contributing a nicely played 46. Ivamy got his wicket with a beautiful ball.

Gravett, the distinguished Cowichan player, was the hero of the day. In a patient and confident innings of 78 runs, he obtained the highest score of the match.

Miss Barrett Taken From Channel When Sick Short Way Out

Dover, Eng., Aug. 22.—Miss Clara Belle Barrett of New Rochelle, N.Y., to-day failed in her second attempt to swim the English Channel.

Miss Barrett abandoned her effort to conquer the Channel at 5.20 o'clock this afternoon, after 10 hours in the water three hours and 40 minutes. She was suffering from violent sickness when taken from the water.

Barrett came within two miles of swimming the English Channel on August 2.

Vic Foley Off For Toronto Seeking To Regain Ring Title

Vancouver, Aug. 22.—In quest of the bantamweight championship of Canada which he lost to Bobby Eber last year at Toronto, Vic Foley boarded the rail train for Toronto on Saturday morning.

Eber's unwillingness to defend his crown prompted the Ontario Boxing Commission to declare the title vacant and suggested a match between Johnston and Foley to decide the right to wear the mythical headgear.

Foley is accompanied by Harvey Holliday, local fight writer, and Jack Allen has the boys in tow. They will be four and a half days in the train and will have six days in which to give a place on the card. He has fought in Toronto before and is very popular there.

SOMERSET SCORES 83 RUNS BUT LOSE FIVE WICKETS IN DOING IT

Taunton, Eng., Aug. 22.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Somerset had lost five wickets for 83 runs in their cricket match with the Australians at lunch time today. This was the county's first innings. The first innings score for Australia was delayed owing to a drizzling rain. When it had stopped, Macbryen and Young, who had scored 21 runs each, were drawn, continued the Somerset innings. Macbryen fell to an easy catch. However, Grimmett scattered Howe's stumps when the score was 74 and Young was bowled on the next over. Danieus was bowled on the next over. Patience hit out at a perfectly pitched ball and was bowled. At lunch time the county score was 83 for five wickets.

No Decision in Commercial Ball League Play-off

Sidney and the Tillamooks are no further ahead in their argument for the Commercial baseball title in spite of the fact that they played eight fast innings of ball on Saturday at the Royal Athletic Park. The result was a six-all draw, darkness halting the play.

Both teams started off well in the first inning. Sidney registering three runs and the Tillamooks one less.

In the third the millmen registered one more, giving them a two-run advantage and added two more in the fifth. The Tillamooks retaliated in the same inning with a like number of runs, giving them a one-run lead. At the end of the eighth frame, which went scoreless, it was too dark to see the ball properly and the game was called.

The second game of the series will be played on Wednesday at 5.30 p.m. at Sidney.

HORSE RACING

Montreal, Aug. 22.—Tattling, fast three-year-old, owned by J. K. L. Ross, Montreal, with Jockey Munden won the Quebec derby at Dorval Saturday. The time was 1.45 2-5 for the mile and sixteenth. The race carried $8,000 added money. Huntam was second with Waltham third. Tattling paid $4.50, $3.55 and $2.30.

French Bike Champ Killed While Riding

Paris, Aug. 22.—Gustave Ganay, champion French bicycle rider in motor-paced races, died this morning from injuries received when he fell during a race yesterday.

Gertrude Ederle Is Whole Show When She Boards Ship

Other International Characters Ignored by Great Crowds at Cherbourg

Cherbourg, France, Aug. 22.—Gertrude Ederle, conqueror of the English Channel, was the whole show here on Saturday as she boarded the Berengaria and sailed for home.

All the way down from Cherbourg on the boat-train from Paris, tourists swarmed through the corridors of the swaying express train to get a glimpse of the American girl who had conquered the English Channel. Most of them were satisfied merely to look at her, but the more self-assured kept opening the door of her compartment to extend their personal congratulations and insisted on shaking hands.

On leaving the boat train Gertrude Ederle carried a balloon in one hand and a ukulele in the other but the crowds on the waiting platform insisted on shaking hands just the same.

IGNORED PEGGY
For once Peggy Hopkins Joyce, who also was a passenger on the Berengaria, found herself ignored by the crowds and she walked up the gangplank unheeded by clicking cameras. Even Jean Borotra, who is going to America to battle for his country in the Davis Cup tennis matches, was almost ignored by the crowds.

The mayor of Cherbourg and other prominent men of the town held a little informal reception congratulating Miss Ederle and wishing Jean Borotra the best of luck. The function ended, Miss Ederle braced the tide of tourists swarming on the pier, zig-zagged her way in and out of the crowd of men and women, saying that she had enjoyed her plump "papa" who plodded along with his other daughter, Margaret, all smiles, both of them.

Gertrude would not talk with reporters, either about her swim or about her plans to cash in on the popularity and prominence that has come to her. She contented herself with saying that she had enjoyed visiting her grandmother in Germany and in seeing the sights of Paris.

"Paris was much more fun this time than during the Olympic games in 1924, because then we American girl swimmers had a chaperone whom nothing pleased."

"What are you going to do when you get home?"

"I am going to keep up training. I am going to train my sister to be a swimmer, too, and big old papa."

At that everyone laughed and the whistle blew and the big steamer took "Tudie" out on the waters of the English Channel—where turbulent straits she swam to fame and most likely to fortune.

LAWN BOWLING
Once again Victoria bowlers proved invincible on their home greens against the pick of Vancouver. On Saturday at Beacon Hill the Victoria club defeated a team from the Terminal City Bowling Club of Vancouver by 118 to 59.

The local will play a return visit to the mainland on Labor Day. Saturday's scores were:

Two Victoria teams played at Burnside on Saturday afternoon and won.

The games between the Burnside Purple and C.P.R. White resulted as follows:

C.P.R. White—Jas. Rasmussen (skip); W. Wood (skip); 18; total, 31.

WINS RIDING CONTEST

Lillian Cannon May Start Channel Swim To-night; After Record

Cape Gris Nez, France, Aug. 22.—Lillian Cannon, Baltimore swimmer, planned to start her latest attempt to swim the English Channel between 7 and 8 o'clock this evening.

Miss Cannon, who hopes to break the record of fourteen hours and a thirty-one minutes set by Gertrude Ederle, was compelled by a storm to abandon her last swim after several hours.

LOCAL BOY YOUNGEST TRAINER OF RACE HORSES IN THE WORLD

JACK ROSS AND TATTERS

Local race track followers who have put their dollars on the well-known horse Tatters may not have known that the owner and trainer of this fine animal was Jack Ross, a local boy fourteen years of age. Ross's stable consists of but one horse. Tatters has won two first and four seconds for his youthful owner. Before turning trainer Ross was a jockey. He is said to be the youngest trainer in the world. Tatters won the sixth race Saturday over Babe Ruth and Virginia Carlton, and his young owner was very jubilant.

Mary Campbell And Gordon Winners Of Tennis Club Titles Former-Defeated Hope Leeming and Later Won Over A. D. M. Fairbairn

D. M. Gordon won the men's open single championship of the Victoria Tennis Club on Saturday afternoon, defeating A. D. M. Fairbairn in the final round in straight sets, 6-0, 6-0.

Gordon played remarkable tennis throughout the match and especially in the first two sets which he won at love. He had speed to burn, both on his forehand and his backhand. He sent shot after shot deep to his opponent's corners, keeping him continually on the run. Gordon had steadiness as well as speed and pace on his ground strokes and when he ran into the net he volleyed and smashed beautifully.

Fairbairn made a gallant but unavailing attempt to win the third set. He made his shot up a great deal and began taking the net. Gordon, however, was prepared, should the one-time champion of the Victoria Club stage a come-back, and took the deciding set, 7-5, after a great struggle. By his victory, Gordon gains a "leg" on the Walter C. Nichol Challenge Cup, which was competed for last year for the first time.

Previous to the final round Gordon defeated Jim Cunningham, 6-3, 6-2, in the semi-final. He played as well in this match as he did in the final. Length, pace, and steadiness were his strong points and he had these with lots of spare.

MARY BEATS HOPE
Mary Campbell won the ladies' open singles by defeating Hope Leeming, 6-3, 9-7, in the best match of the tournament. Every point was bitterly contested. Mary was the victor in the gallery. Both players used great "headwork" throughout the match and hard drives to the corners were followed by short "choppers" and "drop shots," making the match a most interesting one to watch. Mary Campbell just seemed to have the wind and got home to a brilliant victory after battling thirteen games in the final set.

Don Campbell and J. H. McLaughlin won the men's doubles while Mrs. Verney and Eric McCallum won the mixed doubles event after a close match with Mrs. Gillespie and Meredith.

Mrs. and Miss Hope Leeming won the ladies' handicap doubles after the only three set match of the day, defeating Mrs. Rickaby and Mrs. McDonald, 4-6, 8-6, 6-1.

New York Hockey Club is Busy Signing Players For Season

Toronto, Aug. 22.—Three Toronto men will guide the destinies of the New York Rangers in the National Hockey League this winter, according to The Globe yesterday. "Conny" Smythe will be the manager, Frank Carroll, the coach, and Percy Ryan, will likely be the trainer.

"Among players reported signed by the Rangers are: Ching Johnson, Minneapolis defence man; Patsy Callaghan of the Chicago Black Hawks; and the Meador boy with the North Bay Juniors; Elmer Maracle, North Bay; White of Port Arthur; Alex Gray and Len Chalmers of Port Arthur; Murdoch of Winnipeg; former University of Manitoba, and Louis Hudson of the University of Toronto seniors," says The Globe.

"Johnson received a three-year contract at $7,500 a season and it is understood that Gray and Chalmers took the jump when offered $5,000 a year. No confirmation of the Hudson deal has been secured."

WON MISSISSIPPI SWIM
St. Louis, Aug. 22.—Clarence A. Rosa, representing the New York Athletic Club of Brooklyn, won the first annual national ten-mile swim in the Mississippi River here yesterday. His time was 1.53.32. John Dittmer, Purdue University star, Cincinnati, was second, and Charles E. Mudge, St. Louis, third. There were twenty-six entries.

A large professional has been secured to lead, besides the cycle, two foot races, and a number of events for members of the H.M.S. Curlew, which will be in port at that time. Entry forms may be secured from all local bicycle dealers, and must be handed in before 8 o'clock to-morrow night.

Eight Straight For Cardinals Keeps Them Top Of Heap

Cincinnati by Taking Double-Header Within One Game of Two Leading Teams

Philadelphia Has Its First Sunday Ball Game Without Any Consequences

New York, Aug. 23.—Philadelphia has gained a new prominence in sports with a heavy-weight boxing bout added to its centennial celebration and a baseball game played on Sunday without police interference.

According to Connie Mack, there will be no more Sunday baseball this year, because of schedule difficulties, but that of yesterday, when his team defeated the Chicago White Sox, 2-2, was a success.

St. Louis went back almost into a tie with Pittsburgh for the National League lead by winning its eighth straight behind Jess Haines' excellent pitching. The Giants were the victims.

Chicago Cubs and Guy Bush accomplished some record baseball. The team turned in 23 assists in beating Brooklyn and Bush pitched his 21st successive scoreless inning. Bush has allowed only nine hits in his last 27 innings.

Major League pitchers all but spoiled the effectiveness of long distance hitters last week, with a resulting league count of four home runs recorded in the American League and eleven in the National.

National League
Wilson, Chicago, 18; Bottomley, St. Louis, 16.

American League
Ruth, New York, 18; Williams, St. Louis, 12; and Simmons, Philadelphia and Gailin Washington, each 16.

New York, Aug. 23.—The St. Louis Cardinals yesterday won their eighth consecutive victory and advanced within a fraction of a percentage point of the National League leadership when they took the lead in the series from the Giants.

4 to 2. Giant errors accounted for the Cardinals' runs with the exception of a home run by Bell.

Manager John McGraw of the Giants, indefinitely suspended Capt. Frankie Frisch, second sacker, because he left the club Saturday without permission. McGraw said he would return to the team at St. Louis due to poor health, which was chiefly due to trouble with his legs.

Travers Johnson is acting captain of the Giants. Baseball writers have criticized Frisch's playing through the season and he has been fined several times for not running out infield drives.

The Brooklyn defence went to pieces in the eighth inning and Chicago scored three runs to shut out the Dodgers, 3 to 0. The Brooklyn team contributed nothing in the eighth, which with a base on balls and two hits, netted three runs.

Manager Robinson of the Dodgers has resigned and will leave the team to-morrow. A solid block of five undefeated teams, Dundee, Motherwell, St. Mirren, Celtic and Morton are following close on the heels of the Rangers. A solid block was gained as a result of their mid-week game with Dunfermline, when they subdued the former second string club by two goals to nothing. Celtic made it two straight when they obtained the margin over Cowdenbeath, coming as it did on the top of their winning streak.

This last named team are one of the four who have not yet registered a point, the others being Queen's Park, Dundee United and Dunfermline.

Honors were fairly even as between home and away team yesterday, with five securing victories on their own ground. Four won on visiting territory. One game was drawn.

Canadian Football Team Beat Brooklyn

Brooklyn, Aug. 23.—The United States eleven of Toronto, professional champions of Canada, making their first appearance in this country, defeated the Brooklyn Wanderers, yesterday, 3 to 2.

BIG BICYCLE MEET SATURDAY; ENTRIES CLOSE TO-MORROW

Competition in the bicycle meet to be held next Saturday at the Royal Athletic Park by the Four O's Bicycle Club promises to be exceptionally keen. Entries are being accepted by the club and all efforts are being directed towards making it a great success.

A large professional has been secured to lead, besides the cycle, two foot races, and a number of events for members of the H.M.S. Curlew, which will be in port at that time. Entry forms may be secured from all local bicycle dealers, and must be handed in before 8 o'clock to-morrow night.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

BENEFIT BALL GAME BETWEEN STARS AND TRAVELERS TONIGHT

Manager Cy Mills has his squad of players prepared for their encounter with the Travelers at the Royal Athletic Park to-night in a benefit game for composed of the best players of the Sons and Eagles, and will give the Travelers a great try out.

The Travelers, who are preparing in earnest for the British Columbia play-offs, are looking forward with eagerness to the game to-night. It will be a test for them to see just how they will look when stacked up against a dangerous outfit. The game will start at 8 p.m. with Allie McGregor and Bob Whyte in charge.

STILL NO DECISION ON PROTESTS FILED AT RIFLE MEETING

Ottawa, Aug. 23.—No further progress has been made as yet in connection with the protest entered in the King's Medal match, fired on the last day of the Dominion Rifle Association meet at Calgary, on Monday.

No official statement has been issued regarding the protest, but it is understood that Sergeant Ho Lem, of Calgary, entered the protest on grounds of alleged irregularities on the part of certain contestants.

The General Sir Arthur Trophy, awarded to the team of four men, making the highest score, in the King's Medal event, is also held up, until the matter is settled.

Final results of extra series and other matches, which required weekly aggregates and which were not completed until yesterday, were as follows:

The Gasconne active service competition team aggregate prize was won by Sergeant G. M. McNeil, of Montreal, with a score of 344.

The Sherwood active service competition was won by J.M.S. Middleton, Ottawa, with a perfect score of 400.

WALLIS HAD A POSSIBLE
Captain P. Wallis, Victoria, B.C., won the Helmer Memorial Trophy, a snap shooting competition fired at 200 yards, five rounds. Captain Wallis' score of 90 represented a possible.

The Egg-Pool aggregate, carrying a cash prize of $20, went to Captain G. M. McNeil, of Montreal, with a score of 655. Sergeant S. McNeil, of Calgary, was second with 642.

Louvain, N.B., won the miniature rifle individual championship with an aggregate of 477.

The team championship in the miniature rifle event goes to the 48th Highlanders' team of Toronto.

The Harbom sight sweepstakes, five rounds at 500 yards, was won by Rifleman J. W. Smith, with a perfect score of 25.

Major J. Jeffrey, Toronto, won the Lehigh Silver Medal in the revolver competition with a score of 253.

Sergeant Sharpe, Montreal, won the service revolver competition, five rounds with the D.C.R.A. gold medal, with a score of 230.

The silver medal went to A. G. Styles, Regina, for his score of 214. The James Bos revolver team trophy was won by the Victoria Rifles of Canada, Montreal, with a score of 585.

Lieut. H. Bishop, Ottawa, won the extra series aggregate with a score of 391.

Last Day Of Races Brings Two Upsets For Form Pickers

Klickitat Bum and Steptoe Surprise Public, Winning Fifth and Seventh Races

Tatters, Locally Owned and Trained Horse, Wins Sixth; Corbett Rides Two Winners

Getaway day at the Willow race track Saturday provided the fans with only two real surprises. These occurred in the fifth race when Klickitat Bum paid $23.30 on a two-dollar paste-board and in the final event when Steptoe shot ahead in the stretch to pay $17.60. The second race saw a small upset when Fairy's Rose a 74 to 1 outsider pounded home third to pay $11.30 on a two-dollar show ticket. Jockey Corbett celebrated the final day by piloting home two winners.

A thrilling finish was witnessed in the first race, when Lawrence, the second favorite, moved into the lead turning off the back stretch and gamely staved off the challenge of Bill Blackwell, the third choice, to win by the length of his nose. Bill Blackwell, ably ridden by Clarke, was always to the fore and momentarily held the lead in the back stretch. In a hard drive at the end he nearly caught the winner and would probably have done so in another stride.

The longest shot of the race took the lead at the break and held on grimly until the stretch where he stopped badly, finally trailing the field by four lengths. Snow Mountain, the favorite, got away to a poor start, but raced hard throughout securing the position with ease from Operator.

SECOND FAVORITE WINS
A second favorite captured the second race. Cal Curn, chestnut gelding from the Dore stable, gained an early lead and maintained it until the end of the race, when he was long enough to win by a nose from Dr. Hall, the third choice. The latter broke first and leaped well within the rubs, but failed to finish in front at the wire. Fairy's Rose ran a steady race and was second, while Jockey Corbett matched third place from American Lad and Wireless, the favorite.

Jay Roberts, a red hot favorite, won the honors in the third event. After racing behind Hallyne, the second choice, he came out in the fourth and won by a nose. The Griffith Johnson gelding challenged hard and going to the front as the horses entered the stretch he outlasted Hallyne, who was a drive up to the wire, winning by a head.

Kenia, the third choice in this race, started to act up when the horses were at the barrier and, as it was sprung, propped, and failed to put up any show, although he was within four lengths of the wire, winning by a head.

LOUVAIN EASY WINNER
An impost of 125 pounds made the public a little dubious as to the capabilities of Louvain in the fourth race and she was rated a second. But Louvain, who has won twice for the game bay mare made light of her burden and practically romped home, having the field well in hand.

The silver medal went to A. G. Styles, Regina, for his score of 214. The James Bos revolver team trophy was won by the Victoria Rifles of Canada, Montreal, with a score of 585.

Lieut. H. Bishop, Ottawa, won the extra series aggregate with a score of 391.

DRIVER HELD AFTER CAR HIT CHINAMAN

Automobile Struck Oriental Pedestrian on Broad Street
Saturday

While driving his automobile along Broad Street about dusk on Saturday, Harry P. Brown was unable to avoid striking a Chinaman, King Chung, who was rendered unconscious after the impact and rushed to the Jubilee Hospital by the police. Brown was arrested and charged with driving to the common danger, and was arraigned before Magistrate Jay in the city police court this morning. Allowed out on bail of $50, his case was remanded until Wednesday.

King, the injured Chinaman, was picked up dazed after the automobile had struck him. It was not until, however, before his senses began to return and by the time the police patrol had whirled him off to hospital, he was conscious and able to give a statement. He said he was sitting up and able to take stock of his injuries.

"I feel very sick," was all he said when questioned as to his condition. He had been chewing his lower lip incessantly but showed no other signs of pain or anxiety.

Inspector John T. Boulton and Constable J. Strong, together with Constable Arthur Bishop and the patrol were called to the scene of the accident.

PREPARE TO MAKE BOUNDARY RIDING OFFICIALLY 'WET'

Beer won its first victory in British Columbia for many months when the constituency of Grand Forks-Greenwood voted wet on Saturday by a majority of fifty-one. The figures of the poll were: For beer 593; against beer, 542.

This definitely assures the establishment of beer parlors in the Boundary riding. An Order-in-Council proclaiming the district officially "wet" will be passed by the Government here shortly. Under this order the Liquor Board will be able to proceed with the issuance of beer parlor permits.

Twelve delegates, representing Victoria, Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt, left yesterday on their way to the Vernon gathering of the Union of B.C. Municipalities. City delegates included Aldermen William Marchant, P. R. Brown, J. R. Clearburn, R. C. Dewar, W. H. Cullen and City Solicitor H. S. Pringle. From Oak Bay, Reeves H. Anson and Municipal Assessor R. F. ### TOLD BANK GOOD STORY AND GAVE THEM BAD CHEQUE

But George Melcher of Omaha Went to the Races and Was Caught

Held by the city police on a charge of vagrancy, because a local bank at which he cashed a worthless cheque last week did not wish to prosecute him, George Melcher, of Omaha, was charged and remanded before Magistrate Jay in the city police court this morning. Melcher, it is alleged by police, cashed a cheque at a local branch bank and secured an account in Vancouver. It was learned subsequently that he had no such account and the bank authorities immediately notified the police.

In company with Detectives William Caldwell and John Rogers, a member of the racing staff, where the horse races were in progress on Saturday afternoon, Melcher, with money in his pocket, they found him. He did not have the total amount of the cheque he had cashed.

Since the bank would not bring action against the man, the police charged him with vagrancy and he was remanded to-day to appear again to-morrow. A his request, Chief of Police John Fry has sent a rush wire to his family asking for money to make good the cheque he cashed here.

SETS HIGH STANDARD FOR HIS PAINTING

H. M. McGivern Showed Fine
Canvases at Fair; Destroyed
One Study

It is not often that an amateur artist will destroy a canvas after completion, but H. M. McGivern, the well-known artist who is now making Victoria his home, set himself such an exacting standard in his work that he recently destroyed a picture which he had exhibited at the Crystal Garden last year and painted another of the same scene. This second picture, which has for its subject the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa, more nearly satisfied the critical standard of his creator, and McGivern included it among the canvases shown by him at the Willows Fair last week.

Mr. McGivern studied art in New York and Eastern Canada, and had the distinction of being the only British Columbia artist represented in the fine arts section at Wembley Exhibition last year.

His canvases shown at the Willows last week were seven in number. All reflect the artist's sense of strong color values, his use of blues being a striking feature. "Cormorant Point" shows stunted trees on a slope and rocks running out to sea with a breeze ruffling the water. One of the most beautiful of the series is entitled, "A Formal Landscape in California," and pictures an artificial pool with a flight of steps leading up to a mission style house, glimpsed through live oaks, afternoon sunlight falling through the palm fronds, reeds and graceful oaks on the walks and the water.

"Early Spring, Hatley," is a study of the Japanese garden, a large willow in the early leaf reflecting its shadow in the gleaming lake. A charming study of light and shade is seen in "A Glen," with its stream disappearing through the trees.

The stative tints on sea and sky a moment after the sun has gone below the horizon have been cleverly caught by the artist in "After Sunset," while "An Inlet" is another study showing the late afternoon sunlight striking a fir-clad slope, with the gleam of water in the middle distance.

GREATEST SPEED DEMONS OF COAST COMING FOR WEDNESDAY'S AUTORACES

With fifteen speed cars already on the scene and more arriving hourly, Wednesday's auto races at the Willows promise to bring together one of the greatest aggregations of trackburners ever assembled at a Pacific Northwest meet. Every speed demon entered in the races will appear in the first event, which will give the thousands of spectators a thrill from the start—the mile against time for the Canadian record.

The mark, 1 minute 2 3-5 seconds, was equalled by Jack Ross on the half-mile dirt track at Vancouver Exhibition last year, and he will be among those trying to lower it Wednesday.

Rufus A. Dill is the only California car entered. He is one of the ten drivers who invaded the Northwest from Los Angeles and during three months of racing the California cars have yet to lose a race. Dill is the only driver left, the balance having returned to the South. At a recent meet in Centralia Dill whipped his mount into the lead, but was retired from the race through a broken valve.

Jack Smith of Victoria needs no introduction. He is a veteran, and knows every angle of the racing game, and it may be expected that if Jack is beaten, the winner will know he has been in an auto race. Jack Smith has won practically every event in Alberta and Manitoba.

An added attraction will be a motorcycle race between three drivers from Vancouver and three from Victoria. Roy Dealey from Vancouver, claims the British Columbia championship, but his claim is disputed by Ed Miles. The judges will crown the winner of this contest champion of British Columbia, which race will be held until a further contest.

HOTEL LOBBY GOSSIP

SEED PRINCE HERE

Bearing the name that is known in every part of the world where there is a flower garden or even the hopes of a flower garden, A. F. Sutton, grandson of John Sutton, the founder in 1894 of the seed house of Sutton and Son, arrived at the Empress Hotel from Reading, England, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Sutton is on a regular business trip across this continent in the interests of his firm and to-day he met and talked with a number of Victoria and Saanich horticulturists.

THOUSANDS OF EXPERIMENTS

The extensive experimentation that the seed house has to carry on in order to keep up its stock, was emphasized by Mr. Sutton. For instance, during the last season experiments were carried on with 2,000 trials of sweet peas, 1,450 trials of garden peas, 1,500 trials of lettuce, 1,200 trials of potatoes, 335 trials of turnips, 351 trials of tomatoes, 123 trials of cucumbers and hundreds of experiments for various other species.

"This extensive work is carried on because the selection of seed is vitally connected with agriculture, affecting the balance sheet of the individual farmer and the production of the nation," Mr. Sutton said. A picture was shown of the famous Taj Mahal in India. In the walk up in front of the temple is set a bed of potatoes. They are from seed produced at the old Sutton farm at Roulston, Eng.

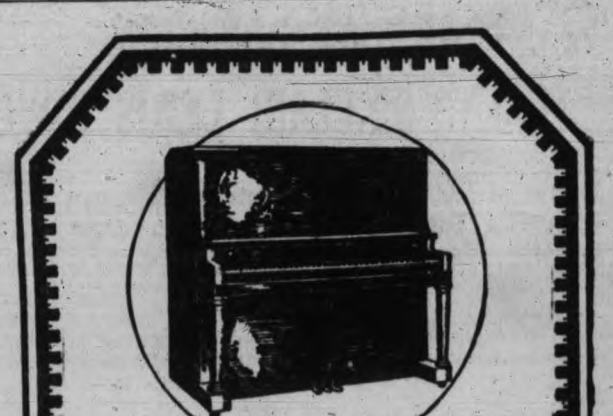

LIFE MEN POUR IN

As the week-end guests at the Empress set out for their homes last night, their rooms were quickly snatched by new arrivals, chiefly life insurance men who are attending the New York Life convention here. The final contingents of the delegates arrived on the Seattle and Vancouver boats this afternoon. Col. and Mrs. Percy Willis of Portland arrived early this morning for the affair.

NEW C.P.R. PIER NEARS COMPLETION

Eleven Hundred-Foot Dock
Will be Ready For Use by Transpacific Liners Soon

Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 23.—The eleven hundred foot pier, already existing between the Orient and will be further cemented by the construction of the new Canadian Pacific Company's eleven hundred foot permanent pier "BC" now nearing completion at Vancouver, and which experts unanimously agree to be the first pier in the world to be built in such deep water.

In an interview given here yesterday Sydney E. Jenkins, president of the Constructing firm stated that the pier could be used at once for the handling of freight traffic. "This new pier which is one of the largest in the world and the first of its size to be built into a gravel fill," said Mr. Jenkins, "will enable passengers to take a journey round the world with the minimum amount of changing as far as Vancouver is concerned. It will permit important cargoes to be rushed by special train right from the ship's side to all parts of the North American continent. Since it is essential in the transpacific ships that many cargoes be transferred from the vessel to the train with all possible speed eight, ten-ton elevators have been erected. Three on each side and two on the end of the pier. The side ports onto these elevators. Raised to the level of the docks and trucked forth into the train standing on the tracks in the centre of the pier.

"Standing between the company's existing piers," concluded Mr. Jenkins, "there can be no doubt that pier BC will take its place in the forefront of piers on this continent."

"MANTRAP," AT DOMINION SINCLAIR LEWIS NOVEL

Author of "Main Street" Pictures Canadian Woods in His Latest Story Adapted to Screen With Percy Marmont in Lead

"Mantrap," which opens to-day at the Dominion Theatre, brings to the screen both the dramatic power and trenchant humor of Sinclair Lewis, author of "Main Street" and "Babbitt," and is as fine entertainment as anything that's been seen here in some time.

The story for the most part has an outdoor setting, the Canadian woods in summer, and is beautifully photographed.

Clara Bow, as the flapper-maniac from Minneapolis, whose sudden love whim has resulted in changing her city environment for that of the Canadian woods, but whose instincts are the same whether in the city or at "Mantrap Landing," plays a part that fits her perfectly. Miss Bow's work is brilliant throughout the picture.

Ernest Torrence, in the role of "Joe Easter, trader and trapper of the North Woods, gives a performance which is great both in dramatic strength and in that delightful, whimsical humor for which he is famous. It is the best role Torrence has had in many months, and he has made the most of it. "Mantrap" should win him plenty of enthusiastic new friends.

Percy Marmont is splendid. As the tired New York bachelor lawyer who wants to get away from women who come to him, seeking fashionable divorces and appealing for sympathy, he is mighty convincing. Of course, he doesn't find the solitude and rest that he expects. Instead, he meets Clara Bow and is drawn into a gripping situation.

The spirit of the author's novel has been admirably maintained by Director Victor Fleming.

An episode rich in humor and satire is Eugene Pallette's characterization of "Woodbury," the wealthy "Babbitt" manufacturer of Twinkle-Toe Hosiery who is a know-it-all camper, loud, noisy, vulgar, and a thorough pest. Sinclair Lewis could not resist taking one of his pet characters to the North Woods. The result is a riot. Spectacular forest fire scenes are a feature of the picture.

"Mantrap," from every point of view is ideal entertainment.

toon, and upon striking it, turned over. Before any one could throw a rope the current had carried the star underneath the pontoon, and Mr. Lytell became entangled in the wire cables.

Seeing the star struggling in the water, a technical man grabbed him by the leg and managed to keep Mr. Tytell's head above water until another hand cut the wires.

Playhouse Stage Has "Miss Parks of Parksville"

Bert Lytell in Film Presentation as Second Feature on Bill

Follow the birds to the Playhouse this week and see the birds that followed the birds to Victoria to see the birds of Parksville. The first bird was Miss "Birdie" Parkes of Parksville, Iowa (Vivien Combe), who ruled the roost at home and wanted to see our Parksville. She brought her two carrier pigeons—her maid (Eleanor Duncalf) and her chauffeur (George Brydson).

Some of the birds she came to see were: Old Joe, the grouse (Ernie Petch); Jim Slade, a blackbird who was always robin (Reg. Hinks); and Slim, (Harold Bechtel), who resembles the bird they call the cuckoo. Then there is a little humming bird, Old Joe's daughter (Eva Payne), and a cute little high-stepping bird who is always ready for a lark (Roberta Balcom). It's a "bird" of a show, so don't miss "Miss Parks of Parksville."

The quick thinking of one of the technical staff saved the life of Bert Lytell during the filming of Vitaphone's "Steele of the Royal Mounted," this week at the Playhouse.

The company was on location on a northern river for some rapid scenes when the accident happened. The camera crew was placed on a large pontoon that was held in place in the stream by several wire cables, and were making a long shot up stream to catch Mr. Lytell coming toward them. The plan was to have the canoe head for the camera pontoon and then to veer off just before reaching it.

All went well until the canoe was to swing away from the camera. For some unexplained reason the craft headed straight for the pon-

Fine Clothes Don't Make the Actress, Says Gloria, Donning Muddy Uniform

Gloria Swanson, producer, has decreed that Gloria Swanson, actress, shall forswear the lure of screen finery and substitute robes for robes.

Whereas it has been the custom to emphasize the personal beauty and allure of the screen star, her self-imposed ruling is that henceforth the actress shall come first. She says she wants only stories giving her full opportunities to employ her particular talents.

If, by chance, these stories necessitate finery and exploitation of beauty, very well! But as commander of her own company in her new venture as a member of United Artists she is to be a stern disciplinarian of Gloria Swanson, the actress.

Compromise, she feels, plays too strong a part with artists whose connections militate against freedom. IN RAGS NEXT

By way of demonstrating this, she announces herewith for the first time that she will appear as a woman soldier in the historic Russian battle of death. The picture carries the working title of "The Woman's Battalion of Death," but doubtless will be changed.

In this, her habitment will be the mud-soaked uniform of the Russian women, who, in order to shame the soldiers back to the battle line when they began to swing to the revolutionists, took up guns and went to the front.

Here will be the role of an impoverished Russian princess and there will be ample opportunity for display of fire, passion and suffering. There will be nothing of the strutting peacock here, nor does Gloria intend for a moment that her selection of pictures will be influenced by the opportunities for display of finery and personal charms.

HER BEST PICTURE

Just now she is resting in preparation for her new tasks. For months she was on the edge of a nervous break, and literally battled her way through the last production made for Paramount which, by the way, a preview shows to be superior to anything done by her in a long time; an astonishing fact to one who watched the filming of it. She was under doctor's orders during the entire, latter half of it.

Count "Hank" is attending to most of her business affairs and, while remaining quiet and getting much recreation, Gloria is doing a great deal of mental preparation.

Gloria Swanson as she will appear as a member of the women's battalion of death in a picture based on the historic Russian episode.

who, however, quarrel all over again, the fire in the garage and a score of other funny situations combine to make this week's offering one of Mr. Ed. Redmond's best.

Others in the cast are Beth Allen, wife of the innkeeper; Archie Kes-son, fire chief, and Gibbs, a chauffeur.

Douglas Fairbanks Has Toreador's Role In Columbia Offering

Stirring Film Story Deals With Escape of Animal in Streets of Town

Douglas Fairbanks has stepped from the land of fantasy back to the realm of realism for his new picture, "Don Q. Son of Zorro," which is based on the novel, "Don Q's Love Story," by K. and Hesketh-Prichard. The new Fairbanks story which will be given its local premier at Columbia to-day, bears no relationship whatever to Cervante's celebrated tale, "Don Quixote."

While "Don Q. Son of Zorro," is less fantastic than the last Fairbanks' screen offering, it nevertheless is just as spectacular, and the production is fully as expensive as "The Thief of Bagdad."

Fairbanks performs many spectacular stunts in the new picture, accomplishing no end of seemingly impossible feats with a muleteer's whip. This, in fact, is his chief weapon, and with it he disarms and defeats his enemies.

Manuel de los Rios, famous full fighter of Seville, taught Fairbanks the art of cape work as practiced in the bull ring, and thus enabled him to overcome a bull which runs amuck in the streets of the Andalusian town where much of the action of the play takes place.

HOROSCOPE

"The Stars Incline, But Do Not Compel"

(Copyright)

MONDAY, AUGUST 23, 1926

This should be a fairly fortunate day, according to astrology, for there are several strongly benefic aspects.

Mars is in a place stimulating to many branches of constructive effort.
Engineers should benefit greatly.

Hospitals continue under the most favorable direction of the stars, making for large benefactions and great improvement in methods of treating diseases.

Soldiers are well directed at this time when honors are preparing for certain officers.

Education is not subject to the best possible planetary government, which promises for the coming year great achievements.

Scientists from the universities are to make tremendous discoveries and to add much to human knowledge, it is foretold.

This day's aspects appear to promise a return to the finer aspirations in contrast to the long reign of materialism.

Literature is to receive valuable contributions from American writers and fame is to come to poets, it is promised.

To-day is an auspicious time for aviators and for aviation. Many new airplane routes will be established within a few months, the seers predict, and they foretell amazing new types of planes.

Mars and certain Eastern states are to come under an unpropitious away with the Autumn ingress, it is prognosticated.

Mars, the Nadir will threaten Washington next month when it is foretold that the country may be excited over a question of public policy.

The president is warned to make the most of his vacation as he is to have many new problems to meet.

Persons whose birthdate it is should avoid any uncertain business conditions in the coming year. They have the augury of prosperity.

Children born on this day may be too highly imaginative for their own good. These subjects of Virgo often succeed in the artistic professions.

SAVES A DISASTER
Keep a piece of blotting paper under your bureau cover over the wood.
Perfumes and liquids accidentally spilled will have less opportunity to injure the wood.

Public reading rooms in Moscow have been equipped with radio receivers.

Leggatt, another star from Cowichan, looked like big things, getting a boundary with his very first ball, but he, like Heb. Gillespie, likewise full of promise, with a forceful contribution of 19, succumbed somewhat easily for such excellent players.

The latter in the catch by Collins in long field.

A noteworthy feature of the visiting team was the fact that many new faces were seen, and included for the first time in an inter-city match at Victoria. Rev. C. B. Price, C. Addie,
C. A. Collins, LeRoy, E. C. Pinkham and Prenter supplementing such well-known veteran players as "Georg"
Peel, "Dad" Peers, F. A. A. Baars, Roy Leigh, "Stan" Bullen, the famous "Shore" Rivers, the late "Bob" Easton-Shore, George Thomas and others.

Vancouver's fielding throughout the day was excellent, and a veritable object lesson.

G. C. Grant's bowling was persistent "on the wicket," and he showed greater speed than usual in delivery.

"Wally" Watson, the Victoria club's famous "stumper," is always a host in himself behind wickets, and was as usually agile and keen while Prenter, the wicket-keeper of the visitors, was much admired and allowed only three or four balls to pass him.

Tommy Reed, the matlander's popular skipper, many times stopped some nasty ones. He brilliantly caught Sparks and skippers his men well.

At one time early in the Vancouver innings it looked as if the visitors would reach Victoria club's score. The score was rapidly mounting, the "telegraph" displaying at 4-50 for two wickets, in spite of the splendid bowling attacks by Grant, Wenman, Sparks and Freeman.

Ivamy in a smashing hit to the boundary sent the score board to its first 100. The side collapsed after that, however.

An interesting coincidence was that "Bill Ivamy" should be out after his boundary hit with the very next ball, a similar fate that befel Eric Quinton, who sent a ball for six to the southern boundary, only to be nicely caught by Vickers, off Broad-foot's next ball.

"Laurie" Wyles, a late-Victorian player, batted splendidly, and should become one of the best bats on the coast, or elsewhere for that matter.
His 46 was invaluable, but was needlessly run out.

The efficient umpires were
"Charlie" Davey for the mainlanders, and Capt. Coley for the Victoria district, while Jesse Longfield kept the score book for the locals.

A word of praise must be extended
Dr. W. W. Bolton, the headmaster of the University, who personally saw to the excellent arrangements

The plant and townsite are on the southeast side of the mouth of Powell River, which runs out of the lake of the same name. A dam, which is not visible from seaward, has been built across the river at the back of the plant.

Powell River is a conspicuous base topped hill 1,180 feet high, 1 1/2 miles within the entrance of the river and on the north side of the lake. The 250-foot concrete chimney and the acid tower are conspicuous from seaward.

Wharves—There are two modern piers capable of berthing ocean-going vessels, with freight sheds, etc., and a traveling crane capable of lifting thirty tons from a vessel.

The northern pier, Pier A, has two berths numbered 1 and 2 on its southern side, with depths of thirty-four and twenty-eight feet respectively. The southern pier, Pier B, has three berths numbered 3, 4 and 5, with depths of 30, 25 and 20 feet respectively.

O.S.K. STEAMSHIP BRINGS MUCH SILK

Arabia Maru Here Yesterday Morning With 5,200 Bales Aboard

Completing the voyage from Yokohama to Victoria in twelve days, the Osaka Shosen Kaisha steamship Arabia Maru, Capt. S. Yamaga, docked here yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Her skipper reported a good trip, although considerable fog was encountered coming up the Straits.

Passengers on board the inbound vessel totaled eighty-two, including twenty-one first class and sixty-one steerage travelers. Three cabin and twenty steerage passengers disembarked here, the remainder of the list proceeding on to Seattle.

The Arabia brought the largest shipment of raw silk passing through here for some time, there being 3,200 bales, valued at approximately $600,000 aboard. Other freight included 220 tons for discharge here, 50 tons of silk goods, 1,700 tons for Puget Sound points, 2,200 weight tons to be moved overland, 400 tons measured, routed by inter-coastal service and 700 tons of oil in bulk.

For Vancouver the steamship had several hundred tons of tea, oranges and provisions and general merchandise.

A heavy consignment of mail was stored in the holds of the Arabia, there being eight-nine for discharge, including ten for Eddie Hubbard, while Seattle's allotment amounted to 584 sacks.

The Arabia cleared about 2 o'clock for Seattle.

TRADE BALANCE IS JAPAN'S PROBLEM

S. Uchida, O.S.K. Manager For North America, Returned Yesterday on Arabia Maru

"Trade balance is the most vital problem facing the present government of Japan," declared S. Uchida, general manager in North America, for the Osaka Shosen Kaisha Steamship Line, who passed through Victoria yesterday morning aboard the Arabia Maru, one of the O.S.K. fleet of liners.

Mr. Uchida is returning to his headquarters at Seattle after a two months business and pleasure trip to the Far East. He was accompanied on his recent holiday by his wife.

Further discussing the future of Japan, Mr. Uchida stated that this country located on the opposite side of the Pacific to Canada would in the near future become one of the leading industrial nations of the world.

At the present time the Osaka Shosen Kaisha will make no changes in its present service between Victoria, Seattle, Vancouver and Portland, the Japanese official said.

When questioned regarding the probability of the O.S.K. line building new vessels for this route, the visitor stated that no plans had been arranged up to the present.

Arizona Maru to Sail This Evening
To pick up passengers and mails the Osaka Shosen Kaisha steamship Arizona Maru will sail at Victoria this afternoon on her way to the Orient from Seattle. The vessel is due here at 4 o'clock and fifteen steerage passengers will board the ship before she leaves for sea at 5:30 o'clock.

Dear Sirs:
When you offered to trade me a whole new, unused day for my washday, I snapped up your offer. And I am finding all sorts of interesting things to do in this new day. I have time for charitable work, for reading and study that I wouldn't have, if I had to worry about how my clothes were going to get cleaned each week.

By sending my washing to your laundry I actually save money.

Sir Oliver Lodge Recalls First Days of Wireless Waves

Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times

London, Aug. 23.—Reminiscences of the beginnings of wireless are given by Sir Oliver Lodge in a special British Association number of "Discovery."

Thirty-two years ago, when the association last met in Oxford, Sir Oliver Lodge gave the first public demonstration of wireless telegraphy. "Certainly the demonstration excited great interest," he writes, "and was much before a crowded audience in the large lecture theatre of the Oxford Museum. I emphasized the fundamental work of Clerk Maxwell and the brilliant experimental discoveries of the recently-deceased Heinrich Hertz, saying that the waves should be called Maxwellian waves."

For the wireless experiment, Sir Oliver used a tube of iron filings and a galvanometer as his receiving apparatus. He says: "Truly, it was a very infantile kind of radio-telegraphy; but we found that distance was comparatively immaterial, and at last, when I was then working, the dots and dashes were received with ease across the quadrangle, or from any reasonable distance. My oft-quoted estimate of half-a-mile as a possible distance related to the fact that still more primitive experiments, when the waves were produced by sparking to a sphere only about six inches in diameter."

Sir Oliver recalls that the late Lord Rayleigh urged him to develop the new invention. "I did not follow his advice, being fully occupied in teaching and I had not the perceptive faculty shown about the same time by Sir William Crookes, who anticipated that such a method of telegraph would be, or might become, of international importance."

"How extraordinarily this incipient demonstration has been developed, modelled, and altogether revolutionized, by the skill, energy, and enterprise of Senator Marconi and his co-workers, is known to the whole world."

H.M.S. CURLEW TO RETURN WEDNESDAY

British Light Cruiser to Remain Here Seventeen Days; City to Fete Men

On Wednesday the H.M.S. Curlew, light cruiser of the Eighth Cruiser Squadron, North American and West Indies, will arrive back at Esquimalt for a seventeen days' visit. The vessel was in port here recently, but only stayed for about two days before leaving on an extensive tour of mainland and island ports. During the last month the Curlew has paid visits to Seattle, Vancouver, Beaver Harbor, Topaz Harbor, Comox, New Westminster and Alberni. According to her schedule the light cruiser is due to arrive here Wednesday morning from Alberni. She will remain here until September 10, departing on that date for her base at Bermuda.

During her stay here a grand fete in honor of the officers and crew will be held at Elk Lake on Wednesday. The fete will be held at the residence of the City Council's reception committee.

The outing will take the form of a picnic and a fine programme of field sports will be arranged. It is likely that water competition will be included in the list of events. The picnic will be brought to a close in the evening with an informal dance.

According to present plans the officers and men of the Curlew will leave the city in tallyhoes at 11 o'clock on September 1, and proceed to the picnic grounds at Elk Lake. Luncheon and supper will be served on the recreation ground, and a band will be in attendance.

The city also intend to secure the support of the ex-service men's organizations in an effort to make the affair one of the most successful ever staged in Victoria.

Schooner Wrecked On Rose Spit With Big Halibut Catch
Prince Rupert, Aug. 23.—Piling up on the rocks of Rose Spit, the northern extremity of the Queen Charlotte Islands, the fishing schooner Volunteer was completely wrecked at the end of last week. It was learned upon the arrival of her three owners.

The Volunteer, which was operated on a profit-sharing basis by the three men, is a total loss, together with their catch of 10,000 pounds of halibut, they said. They were picked up at Rose Spit and taken south to Skidegate, a port of call for the north-bound Canadian National steamer Prince John, on which they arrived here yesterday.

Centenary Marked of Schubert Song

Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times

London, August 21.—It was during this month, exactly 100 years ago, that Schubert wrote one of his most beautiful songs.

An acquaintance of the musician was seated in a beer garden reading a volume of Shakespeare when Schubert approached him, seized his book, and began looking through it. He drew his friend's attention to a certain line, and exclaimed: "Such a lovely melody has come into my head, if I had but some music paper!"

A companion took a ball of fars, scribbled a few staves on the back of it, and handed it to Schubert, who there and then wrote out the wonderful music of "Hark, Hark, the Lark!"
